WHERE THERE IS FAITH, THERE IS PEACE

EXCERPT FROM HIS GOSPEL IS PEACE ADVENT DEVOTIONAL

"But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the ruler of the synagogue, 'Do not fear, only believe'" (Mark 5:36).

Sometimes, Jesus says things that are best described as simply impossible. Simple to say but impossible to do. A ruler of the synagogue's daughter has been declared dead, and Jesus tells him not to be afraid, only to believe. How could anyone do this?

One thing that stands out about the ministry of Jesus is how little power he credits to death. He almost never even refers to it as death unless he is speaking of his own death on the cross. Jesus' go-to name for death is sleep. We see that in this story as he finds people weeping and wailing over the death of this man's daughter and says to them: "Why are you making a commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but sleeping" (Mark 5:39).

We think the opposite of fear is peace, but many times, Jesus contrasts fear with faith. This is because true peace is born out of faith in Christ. Without faith, there is no peace. This is not a command to replace fear with a faith we have created in ourselves. Jesus knows we can't do that. So, instead, he speaks faith into the hearts of his fearful creation. Jesus doesn't wait for the weepers and mourners to believe before he raises this little girl from the dead (after all, we are told that those hearing these words from Jesus laughed at him); instead, he does it in the presence of fear and doubt.

"Taking her by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha cumi,' which means, 'Little girl, I say to you, arise.' And immediately the girl got up and began walking (for she was twelve years of age), and they were immediately overcome with amazement" (Mark

Bethlehem Mission Statement

"Building the family of God through relationship with Jesus Christ."

5:41-42).

Jesus overturns death with a word. Fear has now been replaced by faith, and where there is faith, there is peace. Do not fear; only believe. Simple to say but impossible to do. The good news is Jesus is Lord of the impossible. His birth into a sinful and chaotic world speaks faith and peace into hearts that can muster up neither. He was born to make war with death and he has won. On the day of resurrection, he will take you by the hand and say, "Child of God, wake up."

Heavenly Father, replace our doubts and fears with the faith and peace that only come from your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

PRESCHOOL NEWS

WRITTEN BY LAIVA HOFFMAN, DIRECTOR

This is one of my favorite times of year. Especially at Preschool. I love the wonder and joy that Christmas brings to our hearts and our homes. I love how people are generous and loving to one another. But what I love most of all is that I get the honor of teaching our students about the real reason we have Christmas! At preschool we focus on the birth of our Lord and Savior and the miracle that is Christmas, God coming down to earth to be a person like you and me.

Thank you everyone for supporting the Preschool by purchasing a wreath and/or poinsettia. Our orders will be delivered on Tuesday, December 2nd. You will be able to pick up your order in the Community Center between 12-7 pm. I am excited for that day because the wreaths make the room smell like Christmas! Thank You, Thank You, Thank You!

Next month registration for the 2026-27 school year will open. If you know of anyone that has children between the ages of 2 -5, now is a good time to start talking to them about the program that we offer at Bethlehem.

KNOWN IN JESUS

WRITTEN BY ERIC OSWALD, DCE

Dear Bethlehem,

"You can be right or you can have relationship" is a quote a friend shared with me years ago that I have wrestled with. "Do you care more about right doctrine or saving souls?" is a similar question someone close to me asked recently. They're meant to be provocative and get you thinking. I'm writing this before thanksgiving- so I can rightly say-when meeting relatives around the table you only see once a year this is very good advice. Yet you also have "to stand for something or fall for everything." There's some balance between these two thoughts.

I think as northwesterners we know that we as church goers and even more so as Lutherans- we are the minority. We think different than most in our culture about God, sex, swearing, raising kids, it's all different. How much though do we need to tell other people they're wrong? I don't know the answer for that. Scripture speaks of correcting people privately and in love, and to come from the perspective of someone who has pulled the log out of their own eye first, and said- "I've been there and this is what helped me."

But to be fair, what has helped me the most and what I want to be known for most-is not my judgement of others- but the one who took my judgement for me. If I'm going to share something that's going to make someone think- I want that to be Jesus. I want to share how He's helped me in my struggles- that I've found perfect love in Him. That He's given my life value by knowing how much He values me and values you. Because there is a God- you matter- everything matters! Even small things from the words we say to the thoughts we have it all matters- which from the perspective than we can discuss how we're working on our sin- but more importantly how we might love our neighbors better.

May that be our focus now and always!

God bless,

Eric Oswald DCE

Nominations being Accepted for Christmas

Food Boxes! Do you know of someone in our church family that could benefit from a Bethlehem Christmas food box? Please submit names and provide contact information to the office. Nominations are due by December 8th.

This year we will be helping fifteen households in our extended Bethlehem with Christmas food boxes. Bring food donations to Thanksgiving Day Worship Service or to the "Blue Barrel" in the Narthex starting November 24th. What type of food do I bring? A Christmas tree with stars listing needed items is standing in the narthex. You may drop by the church to pick a star from the tree, grab one after services or call the office to have one picked for you.

Examples include Canned vegetables and fruit, canned soup, pasta, packaged rice or potato dishes, Pasta sauces, packaged gravy mix, Pancake mixes, syrup, salad dressing, cereal, peanut butter, bottled juice, or desert mixes are all needed.

A packing event is planned for Sunday December 21st. Shoppers, people to pack, and people to deliver the boxes will be needed. We cannot do this without our dedicated Bethlehem volunteers; so if you can help, please sign up in the Narthex or contact Barb Bernard by email babzilla3@gmail.com.

LOVE INC NEWS

On November 7, approximately 160 people, including Love INC of Greater Hillsboro staff and volunteers, individuals from partner and potential partner churches, and business sponsors, came together for our 2025 Night of Vision. God blessed us with more than $33,000 in donations and pledges!

It was a night of fun, learning more about and dreaming for the future of Love INC of Greater Hillsboro.

In keeping with our word of the year for 2025, this year's theme was, "FAITHFUL. SEED. GROW. MULTIPLY."

Guests arrived and enjoyed a "Garden Ministry Fair," a 50/50 raffle, a silent auction and dinner, as well as a review of 2025 and a look at the future of Love INC of Greater Hillsboro.

Our word of the year was Faithful, reminding us that God is faithful and we are called to model His faithfulness. The imagery and model of a dandelion helps us understand the persistent faithfulness of God that continues to be Faithful. Seed. Grow. Multiply.

Our program celebrated God's faithfulness in each of these stages for our neighbors, our churches, our programs, etc.

We celebrated God's faithfulness by singing together "Great Is Thy Faithfulness."
